A Glenn Miller Swing Celebration Premieres on Public TV this Fall

The U.S. Air Force Band Joins with 3 Road Communications to Honor Legendary Musician Glenn Miller on 75th Anniversary of his Disappearance on Military Mission

Frederick, MD – 3 Roads Communications, Inc's new broadcast special, A Glenn Miller Swing Celebration, will debut November 1 on Public TV stations across America.

"His songs are unmistakable," states the promo for the upcoming special; an undoubtable truth as proven by the musical legacy of the Army Air Force's own Major Glenn Miller.

The program, shot in UHD, honors Major Miller on the 75th anniversary of his disappearance over the English Channel and features the USAF Band's Airmen of Note, Singing Sergeants, and Broadway dancers performing iconic classics such as "Moonlight Serenade," "At Last," "Chattanooga Choo Choo," "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy," and "I'll Be Seeing You."

For the production and distribution of the special, the U.S. Air Force Band teamed with Emmy Award-winning 3 Roads Communications, Inc. of Frederick, MD.
